Great Family Hotel

This family hotel lives up to its name. Had a fabulous Easter school holiday program for the children as well. Lots of activities as well as ones that you paid for. The children would be served first so that they could go and play in the Playroom that was all glass, so that the parents and family could watch the children as they ate their meals in peace. The food was excellent, the service the same, very friendly staff. And helpful. Prices were very reasonable. Will definitely be going back there again.
